

WOAH!

EASTER 2015

Dear Parents / Caregivers,

On Tuesday March 24 a Christian Option seminar for Easter will be presented at our school. The presentation will be for 50 minutes in the school hall from 1.45pm.

The seminar will be a fast-paced, interactive, multimedia, educational presentation of the Easter story of Jesus, including the sayings "love your enemies" and "treat others the way you would like to be treated". It will help your child understand the central story and beliefs of Christianity and aims to promote harmony and understanding in the community by increasing knowledge of the world in which we live.

This seminar is presented by the Schools Ministry Group which supports the work of Pastoral Care Workers in government schools. It is being supported financially by the local Christian Churches in this community.

As attendance is voluntary could you please return the permission slip below with your wishes regarding your child's attendance at the Easter Seminar by Monday 23 March. Students who do not attend this seminar will be supervised for other learning activities.

Please feel free to come to the seminar too, if you wish.

Yours sincerely,

Principal
